STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change in residence or employment; or if such prior notification is not possible, then within five days after such change;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, import, or manufacture any and all controlled substance and all controlled substance analogues, as defined in 21 U.S.C. § 802, and any paraphernalia related to any controlled substances, except that possession and use of a controlled substance properly prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner is permitted;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
- 10) the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view of the probation officer;
- 11) the defendant shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
- 12) the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
- 14) the defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon;
- 15) the defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information; and
- 16) the defendant shall submit his or her person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, effects, computer, electronic communications devices, and any data storage devices or media, to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any federal probation officer, or any other law enforcement officer from whom the Probation Office has requested assistance, with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant. Any items seized may be removed to the Probation Office or to the office of their designee for a more thorough examination.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. *You must not have direct contact with any minor you know or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18 without the permission of the probation officer. If you do have any direct contact with any minor you know or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18, without the permission of the probation officer, you must report this contact to the probation officer within 24 hours. Direct contact includes written communication, electronic communication, in-person communication, or physical contact. Direct contact does not include incidental contact during ordinary daily activities in public places.
2. The defendant shall not be in any area in which persons under the age of 18 are likely to congregate, such as school grounds, child care centers, or playgrounds, without the permission of the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program, which will include, but will not be limited to, participation in a treatment program for sexual disorders. The program shall be approved by the United States Probation Office.
4. The defendant's supervised release may include examinations using a polygraph, computerized voice stress analyzer, or other similar device to obtain information necessary for supervision, case monitoring, and treatment. The defendant shall answer the questions posed during the examination, subject to his or her right to challenge in a court of law the use of such statements as violations of the defendant's Fifth Amendment rights. In this regard, the defendant shall be deemed to have not waived his or her Fifth Amendment rights. The results of any examinations shall be disclosed to the United States Probation Office and the Court, but shall not be further disclosed without the approval of the Court.
5. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of any evaluation, testing, treatment and/or monitoring services rendered in an amount to be determined by the probation officer based on the defendant's ability to pay and the availability of third party payments.
6. The defendant shall not use or possess any computer or any other device with online capabilities, at any location, except at his or her place of employment, unless the defendant participates in the Computer Restriction and Monitoring Program. The defendant shall permit the United States Probation Office to conduct periodic, unannounced examinations of any computer equipment the defendant uses or possesses, limited to all hardware and software related to online use (e.g., use of the World Wide Web, e-mail, instant messaging, etc.). These examinations may include retrieval and copying of data related to online use, and the viewing of pictures and movies which may be potential violations of the terms and conditions of supervised release from this computer equipment including any internal or external peripherals, internet-capable devices, and data storage media. This computer equipment may be removed to the Probation Office or to the office of their designee for a more thorough examination. The Probation Office may use and/or install any hardware or software system that is needed to monitor the defendant's computer use, subject to the limitations described above.
7. *If the defendant's employment requires the use of a computer, the defendant may use a computer in connection with his employment provided the defendant notifies his employer of the nature of his conviction and the fact that his offense was facilitated by the use of a computer. The probation office must confirm the defendant's compliance with this notification requirement.

DEFENDANT'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF APPLICABLE CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Upon a finding of a violation of probation or supervised release, I understand that the court may (1) revoke supervision, (2) extend the term of supervision, and/or (3) modify the conditions of supervision.

The conditions of supervision have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
